ABOUT THE DISTRICT
Innovative. Collaborative. Entrepreneurial. These characteristics define not only College of the Canyons, but the faculty, staff, and administrators who make this college one of the most unique among California’s 113 community colleges.

College of the Canyons is among the fastest growing community colleges in the nation. It is widely recognized as a model community college for enhancing student access, success, and equity. In fact, its completion rates rank among the highest in the state. The college has also established a well-deserved reputation for bolstering economic development, and offering innovative career technical education responsive to industry needs.

The college has served the dynamic, growing Santa Clarita Valley and surrounding regions within a 367-square-mile area of northern Los Angeles County since 1969. Visionary leadership combined with a steady infusion of new residents and businesses create a spirit of possibilities that inspires the college to be flexible, creative, and attuned to the evolving needs of the community. The growing diversity of the community is mirrored by the college’s designation as a Hispanic Serving Institution.

The college’s influence in the community is reflected by the dozens of collaborative partnerships it has forged with school districts, regional government entities, and service organizations. Thousands of children visit the college’s Performing Arts Center annually thanks to the K-12 Arts Education Outreach initiative. Together, the City of Santa Clarita and the college operate the WorkSource Center to connect job seekers with employers. And, Academy of the Canyons, an early/middle college high school ranked in the top 10 percent of high schools in the nation, operates on the Valencia campus in partnership with the William S. Hart Union High School District.

With campuses in Valencia and Canyon Country, College of the Canyons offers 83 degree and 68 certificate programs, more than twice the number offered 10 years ago. Classes are offered during traditional fall and spring semesters, as well as shorter, intensive summer and winter sessions. In addition, the University Center at the Valencia campus offers 30 bachelor’s and master’s degree programs, as well as a variety of certificates and credentials, from partnering four-year colleges and universities.

Because of the college’s commitment to meeting the needs of the community, local voters have approved three bond measures valued at more than $470 million since 2001. The college also secures substantial funds from the state, and millions of dollars in grants each year that allow new, cutting-edge programs to be developed and facilities to be built to accommodate them.

Given its commitment to growth and innovation, College of the Canyons sets a new standard for what a college can achieve. It is a vital cultural, educational and economic force in the region. Join us here, and you will discover unexpected opportunities, the freedom to innovate, and a chance to shape the future.
